

UNIDIR Internship – Gender & Disarmament Programme

Starting date:	First week of January
End date:	End of March (Negotiable)
Occupational rate:	50%
Location:	Geneva
Remuneration:	Unpaid
Application deadline:	12 December 2018

The United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research – UNIDIR is an autonomous institution within the United Nations that conducts independent research on disarmament and related problems, particularly international security issues. The vision of UNIDIR is a stable and more secure world in which States and people are protected from threats of arms-related violence. The role of UNIDIR is to support Member States, the United Nations and policy and research communities in advancing ideas and actions that contribute to a more sustainable and peaceful world. UNIDIR is based in the Palais des Nations, Geneva.

UNIDIR Gender & Disarmament programme is looking for an intern to assist with research and to support the implementation of project activities. The overall objectives of the programme are to generate policy-relevant knowledge and to provide multilateral practitioners with practical tools in order to apply a gender perspective to the substance of their work.

The internship is unpaid, part time (20 hours / week) and based in Geneva, Switzerland. Costs and arrangements for travel, visas, accommodation and living expenses are the responsibility of the intern or their sponsoring institutions.

The internship is for a duration of three months, with the possibility for extension.

Duties of the intern include, but are not limited to:

- Assist in organizing meetings, seminars, and workshops for the project;
- Produce meeting summaries;
- Drafts official documents and conducts research related to the work of UNIDIR;
- Assists in outreach and partnership activities with UNIDIR interlocutors;
- Attends conferences and meetings, and provides verbal and written briefings to colleagues;
- Contributes to day-to-day tasks, including communication, coordination and administrative matters;
- Performs other duties as requested by the supervisor.

Key Skills/ Interests

- Project management and/or implementation;
- Research and presentation;

- Ability to synthesize information into concise, high-quality written briefs;
- Organization and coordination;
- Interpersonal, teamwork and communication (written and oral);
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office tools (in particular Word, Excel and Powerpoint)
- Should have an interest in international peace and security, disarmament and/or the work of the United Nations.

Competencies

Core competencies are the skills, attributes and behaviours which are considered important for United Nations staff, regardless of their function or level, as well as interns. The Core Competencies for internships at UNIDIR include:

- Communication: Identifies the information needs of target audiences and tailors communication accordingly, drafts clearly and concisely, good written and oral language skills, demonstrates openness in sharing information and keeping people informed.
- Teamwork: Good interpersonal skills, ability to work collaboratively with colleagues from different national and cultural backgrounds to achieve organizational goals.
- Planning & Organizing: Uses time efficiently, foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning, monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary to ensure tasks are completed.
- Creativity: Actively seeks to improve programmes or services, offers new and different options to solve problems, takes an interest in new ideas and ways of doing things, is not bound by current thinking or traditional approaches.
- Client Orientation: Considers all those to whom services are provided to be 'clients' and seeks to understand and reflect the clients' points of view in their work.

Education

To qualify for an internship with the United Nations Internship Programme, applicants must meet one of the following requirements:

- a) be enrolled in a graduate school programme (second university degree or equivalent, or higher); or
- b) have graduated with a university degree (as defined above) and, if selected, must commence the internship within a one-year period of graduation.

At UNIDIR, preference will be given to applicants with post-graduate degree qualifications relevant to the Institute's specific current needs, for instance: international relations, political science, international law, and gender studies.

Work Experience

Applicants:

- are not required to have professional work experience for participation in the programme, while demonstrated experience/interest in gender and/or disarmament will be considered an asset;
- shall be computer literate in standard software applications;
- have a demonstrated keen interest in the work of the United Nations and have a personal commitment to the ideals of the Charter; and
- have a demonstrated ability to successfully interact with individuals of different cultural backgrounds and beliefs, which includes willingness to understand and be tolerant of differing opinions and views.

Languages

- Fluency in written and spoken English
- Knowledge of French an asset.

Interested in this position?

Please send us your CV and cover letter in PDF format named as SURNAME_Name_CV-CL to renata.hessmandalaqua@un.org with “UNIDIR Gender & Disarmament Internship Application” in the subject line. The application deadline is 12 December 2018.

We thank all those who apply, however, only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.

*Applicants for internships must show proof of valid medical insurance coverage to cover the full period of the internship and provide a medical certificate of good health prior to the internship's commencement. The United Nations accepts no responsibility for the medical insurance of the intern or costs arising from injury, illness or death that may occur during an internship.